

ALLELUIA VENI EMMANUEL

A Gospel Greeting

by Nick Baty

As its name suggests, Alleluia Veni Emanuel was originally a Gospel greeting for Advent and Christmas. It's now been extended to include verses for Easter and other Sundays of the year.

For Cantor, Assembly and keyboard. Also included are parts for flute, trumpet and trombone.

The people's part may be included in single-use service sheets as long as the above copyright notice appears in the same document.

Concept Music

Concept Music was founded in 2004 to share the music sung in an ordinary parish in Liverpool with ordinary parishes like us who love to sing.

We don't publish choral music but we do publish music for the assembly which includes parts for the choir – as well as for flutes, trumpets, pianos and even maracas.
